LETTER OF COMMENDATION

The Rector, Rev. Fr. Wence Madu, Ph.D, cmf, on behalf of the Governing Council, Management, Academic Board, Staff and Students of Imo State Polytechnic, Umuagwo heartily commend you and your officers on your spirited efforts in the recovery of the Institution's money that hither-to was lost.

There is no gain-saying that corruption has been very difficult to deal with, as it has been there for a long time and has many different aspects. At a time when it has raised its hydra-headed challenges unabated in the Public and Civil Service, the ICPC has worked relentlessly at ensuring that corrupt practices and other related offences in Nigeria, if not eliminated, are reduced to its barest minimum.

The entire Polytechnic Community appreciates your efforts at enthroning self-discipline in the Public and Civil Service in particular and the Nigeria workforce in general, and pledges our unalloyed support and commitment to your crusade, aimed at making Nigeria a corruption free society.

Once more, accept our sincere commendation.
