

INDEPENDENT CORRUPT PRACTICES AND OTHER RELATED OFFENCES COMMISSION (ICPC)

SUMMARY OF THE NATIONAL DIALOGUE ON CORRUPTION AND ACCOUNTABILITY ORGANIZED BY NAJICPA ON 17TH JULY 2013 AT MERIT HOUSE, ABUJA.

Nancy & Jennifer Ibe Foundation is an organization set-up to mount vigorous campaigns against corruption and corrupt practices, advocate for the promotion of accountability in government agencies and the public and private sector.

The foundation organized a National Dialogue on Corruption and Accountability where the ICPC made a presentation on the Evils of Avarice in the public sector.

In the event, the keynote speech was delivered by Rev. Father George Ehusani, the Executive Director of Lux Terra Leadership Foundation. The ICPC, represented by Mr. M.A. Baba, Deputy Commissioner Education, where in his presentation stated that the ICPC is embarking on a determined crusade against corruption in all the sectors. The paper defined corruption, its types and effects. It also highlighted the core mandates of the Commission which are Enforcement, Prevention and public Education and Enlightenment.

There was a robust interactive session after the ICPC presentation. Participants left with the message that the society has a major stake to play positively so as to have a harmonious and peaceful nation.